

LEGAL RESTRICTIONS ON THE POSSESSION OF SABRE STUN GUNS

The possession and or sale of SABRE stun guns are legal in the vast majority of states and cities across the United States. However, a few states and cities have chosen to enact laws restricting in some way the possession and/or sale of stun guns. Listed below is the most current information on the states and cities with legal restrictions. There may be other states and cities with restrictions. Check your local laws to determine the legality of carrying a SABRE stun gun in your area. The end user must be 18 years of age to purchase. Don't take on Educational Property, Airports or Government Buildings.

STUN GUNS ARE ILLEGAL IN THE FOLLOWING STATES:

- District of Columbia
- Hawaii
- Rhode Island
- Michigan

STUN GUNS ARE ILLEGAL IN THE FOLLOWING CITIES:

- Chicago, IL
- Denison & Crawford County, IA
- Philadelphia, PA
- Tacoma, WA
- New York City
- Long Island
- Staten Island

THE FOLLOWING STATES HAVE RESTRICTIONS ON THE USE OF STUN GUNS, CHECK YOUR LOCAL LAWS FOR SPECIFIC RESTRICTSIONS:

- Iowa – Need Permit or License to carry
- Illinois – Must have a FOID card in possession at time of purchase, seller must keep a record of sale for 10 years, 24 hour waiting period to possess from time of purchase
- Georgia – Can't take on Educational Property
- Maryland – Background check is required, the seller must keep a record of buyers name
- Massachusetts – 21 years or older to purchase, must have a Firearms ID card or a Firearms License to carry Firearms – NOT Legal for sale ONLINE
- Mississippi – Must have a license to carry
- North Carolina – Can't take on Educational Property
- Ohio – Can't take on Educational Property
- Wisconsin – Must keep on own private property
- Connecticut – Can't sell to convicted felons, people with mental illness, and must keep on own private property